RESIGNATION OF MADERO NOT CONFIRMED AND BATTLE IN CAPITAL CITY PROGRESSES

CABLE COMMUNICATION IS CUT OFF BUT WIRELESS IS USED THROUGH KEY WEST

NAVY DEPARTMENT GETS RE-PORT OF BATTLESHIPS AND CRUISERS ARRIVING AT MEX-ICAN PORTS.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 15—President Madero, his staff officers and members of his cabinet are late this afternoon conferring with Felix Diaz and Francisco Delaharra at the British legation. The foreign envoys have made urgent demands that Madero resign immediately.

There was a lull in the firing this afternoon. The rebels and federals clashed this morning and during the deafening cannonading the federals dynamited two business blocks. Your correspondent was fired on in an automobile, although he carried American and British flags. The deputy United States consul was fired on last night and the consulate was wrecked.

Another American was shot today.

Resignation Not Confirmed—

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 15—It has been impossible to confirm the report sent out last night that President Madero has offered to resign.

Francisco Delaharra, spoken of as the successor to President Madero today professed ignorance of Madero's reported resignation. He acknowledged that overtures had been made to Madero to resign, but said that, so far as he knew, Madero had not said what he intends to do.

The incessant night bombardment of the national palace and other federal strongholds and the fierce reply of the federal artillery indicated that Madero had allowed the reported resignation to be circulated in order to gain a strategic advantage over the Diaz insurgents.

Cable Communication Off—

NEW YORK, Feb. 15 — Cable communication between this city and Mexico City was cut off this morning.

Wireless Through Key West—

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15—The navy department has been notified that the battleships Virginia and Georgia have arrived at Vera Cruz, the cruiser Colorado at Mazatlan and the cruiser Denver at Acapulco, Mexico.

No official mention of the resignation of President Madero has been made in the wireless communication, which has been established with Vera Cruz by means of relay through Key West. The Mexican embassy here does not credit the reported resignation.

Battle Through Night—

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 15 — Shortly after midnight the Madero artillery began a vigorous bombardment of Lord. The "glad hand" is always extended to tourists and strangers.

TWO TURKISH TROOP SHIPS SUNK BY BOMBARDMENT OF BULGARIAN ARTILLERY TODAY

ATHENS, Feb. 15—Two Turkish troop ships filled with Asiatic soldiers are reported to have been sunk by the Bulgarian artillery off Rodosto in the Sea of Marmora. Another dispatch reports that 3,000 Turks have been killed in an attack at Cherkeul upon Turkish transports by the Bulgarians.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hethcox of Eustis are the guests for a few days of Mrs. Jennie Gardiner and Miss Gardiner at their home on Myrtle avenue, having arrived yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Hethcox are on their wedding tour and Mr. Heth-cox is a nephew of Mrs. Gardiner.

The steamer Swan came in from the south this morning and after taking on several passengers and an automobile continued her journey to Jacksonville. She was here only about an hour. The Biscayne is expected from Jacksonville this evening. The boats are now running with much more regularity.

The Turkish cruiser Hamedieh is today being pursued by torpedo boats.
The Turkish battleship Assaritefwik is aground in the Black sea and is being pounded to pieces. Indications are the ship will be a total loss.

ATHENS, Feb. 15 — Crete island was finally abandoned by the powers today. The Greek flag was immediately raised and Greece took pos-

JOHN E. STILLMAN KILLS

HIMSELF IN PENSACOLA.

Volusia county friends have learned with regret that John E. Stillman, formerly one of the prominent citizens of this county, committed suicide in his office at Pensacola early this week. Self destruction was accomplished by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. He has been in poor health for some time and it is believed his mind had become affected. Mr. Stillman left Volusia county in 1893 and since that time has amassed a large fortune in West Florida real estate. He visited relatives and friends in Volusia county a few weeks ago and at that time spoke of his failing health.

REAR SLEEPER ON TRAIN 37 BACKED OFF OPEN DRAW INTO ST. JOHNS RIVER LAST NIGHT

GUILTY OF SHOOTING
JOHNSON

NEGRO ADMITS HE WOUNDED
DEPUTY SHERIFF DURING RAID

EACH OF FOUR OTHER BLACKS TACKEN FOR GAMBLING AT PORT ORANGE ARE FINED $10 AND HEAVY COSTS.

Bringing a sudden end to his trial on a charge of shooting Deputy Sheriff W. E. Johnson in a gambling raid at Port Orange the night of December 7, Henry Nelson, colored, pleaded guilty to the charge in the criminal court at DeLand yesterday.

Several witnesses had been examined and the trial was proceeding toward the finish when the defendant called a halt in the proceedings and acknowledged he was guilty of shooting the deputy sheriff. The shooting came during a raid on a house in which it was alleged a number of negroes were gambling and the deputy sheriff had the assistance of Deputy Sheriff Milton and Deputy Marshal Michael of this city. Four blacks were captured in the raid, during the course of which Mr. Johnson had the end of his thumb shot off.

The four blacks captured in the raid were all before the criminal court on the charge of gambling and

ONE WOMAN SEVERELY CUT
BY BROKEN GLASS AND ALL PASSENGERS ARE SHAKEN UP

35 PERSONS IN CAR HAVE NAR-ROW ESCAPES FROM DROWN-ING WHEN SLEEPER GOES INTO WATER.

(Special to Daily News.)

PALATKA, Fla., Feb. 15 — One woman was severely cut by broken glass, a number of passengers were badly shaken up and all the passengers in the rear Pullman sleeping car had narrow escapes from being drowned when the car was backed off the draw and into the St. Johns river here last night by Florida East Coast railway passenger train No. 37.

The draw had been opened to permit a boat to pass and it is claimed the accident happened because there was no flagman at the rear end of the train.

The train, which is due in Palatka about 11 o'clock, and passes through Daytona at 1:18 in the morning, backed the rear car off the draw the engineer set the brakes immediately. The rear half of the sleeper was submerged in the water and the only thing which prevented the whole car from plunging into the river and being completely submerged was the fact that the coupling with the next car held safe. During the remainder of the night and the greater part of the day today the car has remained in this position.

Train No. 37 runs over the stub line from East Palatka to Palatka, and had made this trip last night, discharging its passengers here. It was while being backed over the stub line to East Palatka to continue its run south that the accident happened. There were about 35 passengers in the car at the time and those in the rear end of the sleeper managed to scramble out of the water to the end of the coach hanging out of the river.

No blame is attached to the bridge tender. The west approach to the bridge has been completely blocked by the accident and traffic is being continued by means of an improvised ferry, which will be used until the track has been cleared.

THE DAILY MARKET REPORT.

$12.23. Stocks closed heavy. Cotton closed easy at 18 to 23 net

JUDGMENT BY THE KIMONO

Women Size Each Other Up by a Method Which They Consider Is Infallible.

Even as men judge one another by a Masonic emblem, an Elk pin or the band of a cigar, so do women in sleeping cars weigh each other according to the rules of the Ancient Order of the Kimono.

Seven seconds after Emma McChester first beheld the negligee that stood revealed in the dim light she had its wearer neatly weighed, marked, listed, docketed and placed.

It was a kind of kimono that is associated with straw-colored hair, and French heeled shoes and overfed dogs at the end of a leash.

The Japanese are wrongly accused for having perpetrated it. In pattern it showed bright green flowers that never were sprawling on a purple background. A diamond bar fastened it not too near the throat.

It was one of Emma McChester's boasts that she was the only living woman who could get off a sleeper at Bay City, Mich., at 5 a. m. without looking like an immigrant just dumped at Ellis island.

Traveling had become a science with her, as witness her serviceable dark-blue silk kimono, and her hair in a schoolgirl braid down her back.—American Magazine.

In the making of porcelain enameled sanitary ware in Great Britain and Germany leadless enamels are generally used and are there regarded as even superior in durability to the enamels in which lead is used. The result is that in neither Great Britain nor Germany is this industry looked upon as a dangerous one, while in the United States it ranks as the most dangerous, because of the character of the materials used and the almost total absence of measures to protect the workmen.

The finest resort hotel in the world is being built at Sunset Mountain Asheville, N. C.

Absolutely Fireproof Will open July 1st

Wm. S. KENNEY, manager

MR. E. W. GROVE, of St. Louis, Mo., is building the finest resort hotel in the world, to be opened July 1st, 1913. It will be absolutely fireproof, and is being built of the great boulders of Sunset Mountain, at whose foot it sits. It is being built by hand in the old-fashioned way. Full of rest and comfort and wholesomeness.

¶ The front lawn is the hundred-acre eighteen-hole golf links of the Asheville Country Club, and with it sixty acres of our own lawn.

¶ The purest water obtainable anywhere, piped seventeen miles, from the slopes of Mount Mitchell, over 6000 feet altitude. Biltmore milk and cream exclusively, supplied from 200 registered Jerseys on the estate of Mr. Geo. W. Vanderbilt. It is doubtful if this famous dairy is equaled in the world.

¶ Four hundred one-piece rugs are being made at Aubusson, France. Seven hundred pieces of the furniture are being made by hand by the Roycrofters. The silver will be hand-hammered.

¶ The plumbing material will be the finest that has ever been placed in any hotel in the world. The soil pipe has been hydraulically tested and then galvanized. The hot water pipe, 18,000 lbs. in weight, will be solid brass. The steam pipes are Byers' genuine lap-welded wrought iron tested hydraulically to 1000 lbs. The bathtubs and fixtures all solid porcelain. No pipes visible anywhere. No radiators to be seen—all placed in recesses under windows. No electric bulbs to be seen.

¶ The "Big Room," or what some call the lobby, is 80 feet by 120, and the rugs in this one room will be worth $5000.00. The two great fireplaces in it will burn twelve-foot logs.

¶ For the golfers we are building lockers and shower bath rooms with a forty-foot swimming pool that will not be excelled by the finest clubs in existence, and the players will be less than 100 yards distant when they are on the links.

¶ Mr. Wm. S. Kenney, of Bretton Woods, N. H., who has shown in his management of The Mount Washington hotel and Hotel Clarendon, that he is the peer of hotel keepers, will manage the Inn.

¶ We own eight hundred acres around the Inn (consumptives not taken).

¶ Especially available for northern guests in the Spring, Fall and Winter, going or returning from farther southern resorts, or for an all Winter resort.

¶ The Inn is located on the side of Sunset Mountain, about a mile from the top, and is not only cool enough in the Summer to make a blanket necessary at night, but is protected and mild enough in the Winter to make life enjoyable without enervation.

correspondent, is likely to be selected by the Democrats for the position of secretary of the senate, which pays $6,500 a year. Mr. Woolley was licity bureau of the Democratic national committee in the recent campaign and chief investigator for the Stanley committee, which probed the MEETING AT H. R. Y. CLUBHOUSEMEETING ADDRESSED BY REV. D.

H. RUTTER, C. F. BURGMAN AND S. H. GOVE—RAIN CUT DOWN ATTENDANCE.The meeting at the Halifax River Yacht clubhouse last night was not largely attended owing to the inclement weather, which also prevented the speakers from New Smyrna from being present.S. H. Gove was selected as chairman and he introduced Rev. D. H.
Rutter and C. F. Burgman as speakers of the evening. Mr. Gove also made a short address.The meeting had been called for the purpose of increasing interest in the proposed improvement of Mosquito Inlet and the speakers confined themselves to explanations of the benefits to be derived by making the inlet a port of entry and the necessity of organization and further earnest work for the improvement.Mr. Rutter was the delegate from the board of trade of this city who in company with delegates from New Smyrna recently visited Washington, D. C., in the interest of the inlet improvement and his address dealt with the work done by the committee in Washington and the facts and figures secured and used by them showing the advantages of Mosquito inlet over those of St. Lucie inlet as a port of entry. Mr. Rutter is very sanguine that the improvement of Mosquito inlet can be accomplished by properly directed, systematic effort.Mr. Burgman spoke principally along the line of the necessity and value of thorough organization and also brought out strongly the advantage in time of transportation of water service over railway service, inter state commerce statistics showing that boat shipments were much more speedy than those by train. He gave several examples within his own knowledge in proof of this.Mr. Gove urged the importance of the inlet improvement to Daytona and the whole section as a relief from insufficient railway service and cited the conditions which existed along the East Coast the season before last when quantities of produce rotted on the ground owing to the inability of the railroads to transport it to market. This condition is largely due to the fact that the passenger business is heaviest at the time fruit and vegetables are being shipped and the freights would find a great relief if there was an outlet through Mosquito inlet.WALLACE HALL'S CONDITION SHOWS IMPROVEMENT TODAYLAD IS ABLE TO RECOGNIZE AND CONVERSE WITH HOSPITAL AT-TENDANTS AND HAS EVEN CHANCE.Wallace Hall, the boy who was dangerously hurt by being struck by an automobile in front of the Seabreeze school house last Wednesday afternoon, is improved today. He is able to talk with the hospital attendants and it is given out today that he has an even chance for recovery.The operation performed Thursday night by Drs. Turk and Bohannon relieved the pressure on the brain caused by the fractured skull and the condition of the injured lad has gradually improved since that time.
His condition is still dangerous, but it is believed the chances for recovery are better now than at any time since the accident.*New shipment of Middy blouses,

COMES HERE TONIGHT."Human Hearts," Hal Reid's well known melodrama comes to the New Daytona theater tonight. The hero, "Tom Logan," a village blacksmith, and in the words of the playwright,
"one of nature's noblemen," weds an adventuress, who deserts him as soon as the villain appears, who has killed the hero's father and fastens the crime on Tom, who is convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment.
One of the principal characters is a hobo, "a diamond in the rough," who besides causing much laughter, keeps them pretty hot for the villain and, in the end furnishes evidence that clears Tom's good name and brings everything to a happy finish.

special scenery is carried for a per-

SAVES DRIVER FROM INJURY*FITZHUGH BRADSHAW KNOCKED DOWN AND RUN OVER BY EX-PRESS WAGON BUT IS NOT SERIOUSLY HURT.Struck by the wagon when the horse started suddenly, knocked down and run over by two wheels, Fitzhugh Bradshaw, driver for the Southern Express company was probably saved from serious injury from the fact that he carried the money bag in his hip pocket.The driver left the wagon at the corner of Live Oak and Beach street to deliver a package and the horse started suddenly just as he started to climb back into the wagon.
He was knocked down, thrown under the wheels and both wheels passed over his hips, the money bag in his pocket breaking the weight.The driver attributes the accident to the fact that the former driver of the horse had taught the animal to start as he climbed into the wagon. The horse ran up Beach street and attempted to turn up Live Oak avenue but passed between two trees at the corner and the wheel struck one of the trees, overturning the wagon. The harness held the horse and the animal was held by a passerby until the driver arrived on the scene.*Auto Wanted—I can use a five and associate players at the New Daytona theater for one night only, Friday, February 21, will present the actor-manager in a big dominant role of the type which playgoers have learned to associate with his name.

"The Havoc" is a tense, gripping drama, built upon the story of a duel of wits between an injured husband and a treacherous guest in his home. The big role of the play, the husband, offers one of the most convincing characters seen on the stage in recent years and is played by Mr.
Gilmore with quiet power and tense nervous force. By the sheer power of his acting he dominates the power of his acting he dominates "The Havoc" with perfect ease, and during the scenes that are softened by brilliant ironic comedy he makes the author's satiric lines snap and sparkle and burn by his quick, nervous, crisp, decisive tones.*Tea trays, banners and favors at

Watch It Grow

Watch it through the columns of The Daytona Gazette-News. It is published every Saturday the year 'round. More than a million dollars in improvements in Daytona and vicinity have been made during the past year and many large undertakings are laid out for the coming season, and you will want, of course, to keep abreast with the progress of the community.

It gives you more local news than all local papers of Volusia combined. Many of the little personals about persons with whom you are acquainted will interest you.

Old "Eagle Eye's" Mean Trick.
"Jake Beckley was one of the few players who ever made me look like a monkey," said old Honus Wagner of the Pirates the other day. "It happened in Louisville years ago, and Tim Hurst was umpiring. I was on first base and saw Jake hide the ball under his arm. I told him several times I was wise to such bush league stuff, but Jake pretended he did not hear. Finally, when Hurst was not looking, I grabbed the ball from under Jake's arm and threw it into right field. Then I started for second base, only to have the pitcher throw another ball to the second baseman, and I was run down between the bases. I felt so cheap I could have dropped clean through to China. Beckley had been holding a gummy ball."—New York Press.

Lend a Hand Anywhere.
If you cannot on the ocean, Still among the swiftest fleet, Rocking on the highest billow, Laughing at the storms you meet,
You can stand among the sailors Anchored yet within the bay.
You can lend a hand to help them As they launch their boats away.

If you cannot in the harvest Garner up the richest sheaves Many a grain both ripe and golden May the careless reapers leave, Go and glean among the briers Growing rank against the wall,
For it may be that their shadow Hides the heaviest wheat of all.

Do not, then, stand idly waiting For some greater work to do, Fortune is a fickle goddess,
She will never come to you.
Go and toll in any vineyard,
Do not fear to do and dare,
If you want a field of labor
You can find it anywhere.

—Margaret E. Sangster.

Better Off.
One day during a rehearsal at His Majesty's theater in London, Sir Herbert Tree told a rather incompetent young actor to step back a little. The actor did so, and the rehearsal proceeded. After a few seconds Sir Herbert repeated his request. "A little farther back, please."

The actor stepped back again. Sir Herbert surveyed him critically for a moment and continued the rehearsal. Then for a third time Sir Herbert asked him to stand back a little.

"But," protested the actor, "if I stand farther back I shall be off the stage altogether."

"Yes," agreed Sir Herbert, "that will be much better."

A Turkish Joke.
A certain sultan of Turkey was very fond of gossip and sent for the banker Abraham Beg to learn the small talk of Pera and Stamboul. As Abraham was being conducted to the sultan's residence by the master of the horse that functionary begged him should the sultan question him on the subject to say that the funds were at 30, his majesty having been so informed by his ministers.

Poor Abraham consented. He had not been long with Abdul Aziz when he was questioned as to the funds and replied as he had promised.

To the horror of the banker, the sultan expressed himself delighted and handed Abraham a large bundle of bonds to sell for him.

Abraham sold at 12 and paid Abdul Aziz 30. The sultan had originated that little "joke."

Prince Danilo's Story.
The patriarchal manners of the little court of Montenegro are well known. King Nicholas lives the simple life of a shepherd king, and his wife has brought up her family herself. Every evening she used to bring the children round her, those daughters whom King Nicholas is once said to have mentioned in reply to the accusation that his country had no exports, and the son, Prince Danilo.

Every night she told them one of the legends of the Black mountains from which their country takes its name, and every night the little children had in turn to tell her a story, the most successful being rewarded with a sweetmeat.

One evening little Danilo was very thoughtful and refused to tell his story, saying he was really too sad.

"Come, come, Danilo; I must insist," said his mother.

"A very short one, then."

"All right, a very short one."

"And you will kiss me after I have told it?"

"It's a promise."

"Well, then, once upon a time there was a Sevres vase, and I have just broken it."

The Sevres vase was a present from the French republic, but Danilo's mother had to keep her word and kiss the culprit.—New York Sun.

The Conductor's Mistake.
A conductor on the St. Louis and Suburban railroad had such a good run of business Sunday afternoon that he had difficulty in keeping himself supplied with small change. Many passengers who patronized his car handed him dollars and bills of larger denominations in payment of their fares. The conductor, however, managed to get along fairly well until a woman carrying a tiny infant boarded his car.

When he approached the woman for her fare she handed him a five dollar bill.

"Is that the smallest you have, madam?" queried the conductor, fearing another stringency in change.

The woman looked at the conductor and then at her baby and made this surprising reply: "Yes; I have been married only twelve months."

SNUBBED THE KING.

But George of Greece Saw the Humor of the Situation.

An amusing story is being told of King George of Greece, one of the combatants in the war of the Balkan states.

When he goes to Aix-les-Bains, his favorite holiday resort in France, he very often visits the casino in the evenings. On these occasions one of the hotel omnibuses is sent for his private use, and in this he always drives back to the hotel. One evening a lady who was leaving the casino immediately in front of him stepped into the omnibus. The king's equerry made a motion as if to prevent her, but the king stopped him.

"Never mind," he said; "she's not in the way."

The lady, having noticed the attempt to stop her progress and overhearing the king's remark, glared laughingly at the two men, elevated her shapely eyebrows and tilted her pretty nose rather high in the air as the two gentlemen took their seats.

The omnibus started, and after a minute or two the king addressed some remark to his equerry. The latter replied, using the term "Your majesty," rather more emphatically than usual. The lady suddenly realized who they were and, banging on the door, tried to attract the driver's attention, apparently with the idea of making a hurried exit.

MADE A MOTION AS IF TO PREVENT HER.

"Oh, what have I done?" she wailed. "Heavens, what have I done? Stop, stop! Let me out!"

"Calm yourself, madam, I entreat you," King George said reassuringly. "Even a king is not an epidemic disease!"

An Art Aristocrat.

In "German Memories" Sidney Whitman tells these delightful stories of Lenbach, the famous portrait painter.

Once when asked his price for a portrait Lenbach answered: "That all depends; from 20,000 marks, which I may ask, down to 5,000, which I may be willing to pay for the privilege of painting an exceptionally interesting face."

If he did not want to undertake a commission Lenbach would quote an extravagant price as a simple way out. This happened in the case of a Berlin banker. "But surely that is too much," said the close fistled millionaire.

"I bought a portrait which you painted of Prince Bismarck for less than half that price," "That may be," replied Lenbach quietly. "It was a pleasure for me to portray him. But surely, Herr X., without offense, you do not imagine that it would be an equal pleasure to me to paint you?"

Retribution.

A young woman went into a city restaurant for her lunch, but after a glance at the tablecloths and a sniff of the close air she decided to eat elsewhere and started to go out. The proprietor thought that she was leaving without paying for a meal and stopped her. In order to avoid hurting his feelings the girl said:

"I find that I have forgotten my pocketbook, so I can't eat here now." She was hurrying away, but the proprietor was kind hearted.

"My dear girl," he said, "you sit right down and eat! No young woman is going out of my place hungry because she hasn't her money with her. You eat now, and tomorrow you can come in and pay me."

The young woman sat miserably down and tried to eat, and as she left, hiding her pocketbook, she mused:

"That's what I get for fibbing! And to think that I must come here again tomorrow too!"—Woman's Home Companion.

They Didn't Need the Water.

"In the days of the old volunteer fire department there was more quenching of thirst than quenching of confagurations," said Fire Chief Kenon of New York.

"The volunteer firemen, I'm afraid, were a sad lot of roisterers. There's a story they tell about a fire back in 1839."

"It was a fire at an outlying farm, and when the firemen arrived with engine and hose the buildings were pretty well destroyed."

"The farmer met them at the gate. He said bitterly:

"'No use yer comin' in, boys. There ain't a drop o' water within two miles of us.'"

"But the firemen, mindful of the usual merry-making that accompanied every fire, pushed right on with their apparatus."

"'Oh, that's all right,' they said heartily. 'We don't mind drinking it straight.'"—Boston Herald.

STATE
HAPPENINGS

News from Fair Florida Briefly Told

A union depot is to be erected in Bartow by the S. A. L. and A. C. L. railroads, and the new station is to be completed by the 31st of July.

Chase & Company have shipped 73 solid cars of oranges from their packing house at Leesburg, besides the local shipments.

On account of the increased amount of freight handled between Chubb and Bartow a regular freight train has been put on.

Again Tampa's tonnage last week was valued at more than a half million dollars. The bulk of the cargoes handled was phosphate.

The Tampa Tribune says: "Celery growers in Florida are said to be just now on the shadiest side of 'Easy street' owing to handsome returns from their crops."

A grapefruit which weighs seven pounds and 30 inches in circumfer-ence, was brought to St. Petersburg by F. S. Chandler of near Largo and put on exhibition. It is believed to be the largest grapefruit ever grown.
It is a freak and the grower does not know how it happened.

Pass-a-Grille is to have a big carnival which will include a number of speed boat races and other attractions. This big affair will open on the 21st of this month. A great many fine boats will enter the races and a number of handsome prizes will be offered.

Showing the Goods.
A novel mode of advertising for a wife has been adopted by an inhabitant of a provincial town in England.
A photograph of the gentleman is placed in the window of a shop-keeper, and underneath is the following notice:
"Wanted; a female companion to the above. Apply at this office."

Queer Matrimonial Mixup.
A man at Angouleme, France, who divorced his wife and married again, finding his second marriage no happier, has fallen in love again with his first wife and gone back to her. His second wife has instituted divorce proceedings against him, naming the first wife as co-respondent.

Galsworthy Aphorisms.
Nothing that's true is cynical, and nothing that is cynical is true.
The word "smart" is the guardian angel of all fashions, and fashions are the guardian angels of vulgarity.—
"For Love of Beasts," by John Galsworthy.

ting home evenings she fancies all

A COMICAL LAWSUIT.

Odd Revenge of the Whimsical Count de Lauraguais.

The Count de Lauraguais was one of the most singular characters of a whimsical time. He was full of oddities and had a reckless spirit of daring. The boldness of his language and action once drew upon him the displeasure of Louis XVI., who banished him from Paris, but he came back on a festive day and was seen in the very face of the court walking about a race course. The king winked at the escapade. Such a culprit was incorrigible.

But one of the most absurd of his antics had to do with the Prince D., a very dull courtier, against whom he had a grudge. One day the count applied very gravely to a physician, asking if it were possible for a person to die of ennui.

"Such a thing," said the doctor,
"would be very singular and very rare."

"But what I want to know," said the count, "is would it be possible."

"Well," answered the doctor, "a long continued state of ennui might induce some disease, such as consumption, and in that sense it might cause the patient's death."

On this the consultation was written down and signed at the count's request and the fee paid.

Next he went to an advocate and asked whether he could make a legal complaint against a man who by any means whatsoever had formed a design against his life. The advocate assured him that there was not the least doubt of it and in his turn signed a declaration. Armed with these documents, the Count de Lauraguais instituted criminal proceedings against Prince D., who, he declared, had formed the design of tiring him to death!

Of course the suit ended in laughter, but he had had the satisfaction of enraging his enemy.

Sophie's Orthography.

The great Alexander Dumas was sitting at dinner with some friends. They had just complimented him upon the excellence of his kitchen. "Yes," he said reflectively, "I have a cook who is a wonder. Her name is Sophie. And do you know, she has achieved a miracle in orthography. She writes her first name without employing a single letter that belongs to it."

"But it isn't possible," said one of his guests.

"Absolutely true. I give you my word.
She writes it 'Caufy'!"—Bookman.

Acquiring a Reputation.

Archbishop Howley, who lived in the eighteenth century, most unjustly got the reputation of swearing like a trooper. The explanation is that the Duke of Cumberland, who fought the battle of Culloden and who was unspeakably profane, once went in quest of the primate to get his assistance in defeating a certain bill which he disliked. He returned to the house of lords, saying:
"It's all right, my lords. I've seen the archbishop, and he says he'll see the promoters to — before he'll vote for the — bill." As a matter of fact, all the profanity had been supplied quite in the ordinary run of conversation by the duke.

Beat Her to It.

The lovely girl, having lingered a minute in her room to adjust her transformation, change the angle of her Greek band and make sure that her skirt fitted like the peeling of a plum, descended to the parlor to find the family all assembled and the pet of the

"AREN'T YOU ASHAMED OF YOURSELF?"

household ensconced upon the knee of the young man caller, her curly head nestled comfortably against his shoulder.

"Why, Mabel!" the young lady exclaimed. "Aren't you ashamed of yourself? Get right down."

"Shan't do it," retorted the child. "I got here first."—Everybody's.

Quite a Linguist.

An old but sturdy Irishman who had made a reputation as a gang boss was given a job with a railroad construction company at Port au Prince, Haiti.
One day when the sun was hotter than usual his gang of black Haitians began to shirk, and as the chief engineer rode up on his horse the Irishman was heard to shout:

"Allez—yon sons of guns—allez!"

Then, turning to the engineer, he said:
"I curse the day I ever learned their language."—Everybody's.

the bridge players. At the five hundred tables Mrs. T. C. Dunn of East Orange, N. J., was high score among the ladies, and F. L. Scott was winner of the gentlemen's prize. Light refreshments were served following the cards.

Last night a Valentine dance was given at the Despland and was greatly enjoyed by the large number of couples on the floor.

This evening the regular Saturday evening hop will be given at the Despland.

HOTEL WINDSOR.

One of the most pleasant affairs of the season at the Windsor took place Thursday evening, when nine tables of euchre were engaged. Mrs.
Connors of New York was the winner of the first prize, while Mrs.
Baker carried off the second. L. S.
Rand received the consolation prize.
Following the cards ice cream and cake were served.

New arrivals at the Windsor are Mrs. L. Seidler, Cliffwood, N. J.; Mrs.
L. Herenthaler, Newark; C. E.
Wright, wife and daughter, Fred Doeph, wife and son, Milwaukee; F.
L. Hogan and wife, Sioux City.

RIDGEWOOD

The Ridgewood hotel celebrated St.
Valentine's day with a "Topsy Turvy" party. The guests were all elaborately dressed in picture costumes. A game of progressive hearts was enjoyed for a short time and George Post of New Haven, Conn., was awarded the first prize, a handsome drum. Mr. McNamaret of Bridgeport, Conn., in a lovely girlish creation, was presented second prize, a horn.

The grand march was the principal feature and partners were selected by drawing mysterious packages, each of which had a duplicate.
Judges were named, who decided that Mrs. Daniel Lees of Philadelphia, dressed as an Indian, wore the most unique ladies' costume, and that Albert Lang of Lawrence, Mass., as a Jap, has the best gentleman's costume. Beautiful prizes were presented these two.

Dancing followed and refreshments were served.

treal.

The rain of last night only made it seem more comfortable to be a player in the progressive heart party that was held at the Palmetto hotel Friday evening. It proved to be one of the largest attended of the season and every one had a good time. The play commenced at an early hour and ran well into the evening. Mrs. Geo. Courvoisier, Mrs.
C. T. Hamilton and Mrs. R. E. Gordon were the three ladies that helped to make the party a success. The awarding of prizes was made by Geo. Courvoisier, and when the final scores were recorded it was found that Mr. Browning had won the first prize, F. E. Adams the second, for gentlemen, and that Mrs.
Hapgood had won first ladies' prize and Mrs. J. L. Ross the second. A special prize was awarded to the one who remained for the longest time at any one table and this happy surprise went to Richard Hapgood.
Ice cream and light refreshments were served during the evening.

Map in the Nursery.
I have discovered that a large map of the United States hanging in the nursery, or where the children can see it, is a great educator. A map of your own state also, showing counties, townships, capitals, etc., will also help all the family to know more practical geography than may be studied in books. It is a good idea to consult both maps frequently with the children, to look up any strange towns read about in the paper. It teaches them to know their own country, state, city, etc.—Harper's Bazar.

JAPANESE CARD PARTY AS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

A delightful social function was the Japanese card party given from 2:30 to 6:00 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, at 231 North Beach street, in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. H. A. Inteman.

About 30 ladies were present and all appeared in Japanese costumes.
Some very pretty pictures were taken of the group during the afternoon.
Five hundred was the game enjoyed and the prizes were secured by Miss Linna Stubenbord, Mrs. Henry Schmidt, Mrs. Michael Sholtz and Miss Ethel Sholtz. The souvenirs consisted of small Japanese shoes and parasols.

The rooms of the residence were very beautifully decorated in Japanese style, not omitting the cherry blossoms, and the electrical lighting of the rooms, which was done by the Arcade Electrical company, was striking and beautiful.

At the conclusion of the party refreshments were served in the dining room, adding another pleasant feature to the occasion, which was not only the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Inteman but also that of the marriage of the president, Abraham Lincoln.

Derivation of "Shark."
All sharks derive their name "shark" from a Greek word of similar sound meaning "having sharp teeth." The creature's utility to man is nothing in contrast with the havoc they commit among food fishes. Some of the smaller varieties of the shark are sometimes eaten. Oil is obtained from their livers, which is chiefly used in the adulteration of cod-liver oil.

the largest amount, $3,459.60, and Polk county comes next with

After several efforts to pull off

DEPARTURE TEMPORARILY DELAYED BY LOSS OF TRUNK.

Miss Ella Stanford, of Cambridge Springs, Pa., has been with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Braddock for a week past at their home, South Ridgewood avenue and intended leaving Friday for Deland, but her departure was delayed by the loss of her trunk at the P. E. C. railway depot. Mr. Braddock took the trunk to the baggage room at noon, but as the doors were locked and there was no one to receive it, but thinking it would be all right he left it beside the door. Later, when Miss Stanford went to the baggage room to check her trunk it could not be found. Afterwards the trunk was returned to the depot, it having been taken by mistake by the driver of the Clarendon hotel truck.
Miss Stanford visited Daytona 12
